

MAKE A DIFFERENCE

If you are a licensed clinician who enjoys the patient training and education aspects of your work, the Clinical Patient Trainer position at Hillrom may be for you. As a Clinical Patient Trainer, you will learn about and work with innovative medical technologies and be integral in bringing them to patients, with the flexibility to set your schedule.

POSITION TYPE

Contracted

RESPONSIBILITIES

- Performs a variety of clinical activities in patients' homes including:
  - Training, education, and setup of prescription Respiratory Health products
  - Setup and titration of non-invasive ventilators (NIV)
- Gain applicable knowledge of new products, therapies, and relative documentation

QUALIFICATIONS

- Graduation from an accredited program of Respiratory Care, Nursing, or Physician Assistant with a current, active license in the state of practice.
- Has the ability to work independently with a passion for training
- Previous clinical experience in acute care working with related therapies or home care/DME training is preferred
- High level of flexibility required to accommodate patient schedules

hillrom.com

For more information please see contact below. To apply, please send a resume.

Joseph P Buhain EdD MBA RRT FAARC

Clinical Training Program Manager
Patient Services
Respiratory Health

651-787-9915 office

651-272-8408 mobile

joseph.buhain@hillrom.com